Frequently Asked Questions

What is Derbyshire Connect Active Travel?

This is a new service, partly funded by Derbyshire County Council, and run on our behalf jointly by Voluntary and Community Services Peaks and Dales and South Derbyshire Council for Voluntary Services. It is for journeys to any type of healthcare-related appointment.

Who is the service for?

Derbyshire Connect Active Travel is for people who are unable to use conventional public transport to get to healthcare appointments because of age, mobility difficulties or other disabilities or they live in areas where bus services are limited.

Which area do you cover?

Derbyshire Connect Active Travel South Derbyshire and South Derbyshire Dales provides journeys for people living in the towns of Ashbourne, Melbourne, Swadlincote and Wirksworth and all the surrounding villages within both district council areas.

When does this service run?

Derbyshire Connect journeys will generally operate from 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday. The service may also be available outside these times. Journeys must be booked in advance and you are advised to give as much notice as possible.

How much will it cost?

Charges vary depending on how far you travel. Anyone accompanying a passenger travels free. You will be advised of the fare when you book.
